

Conflict Minerals Statement

Trinkor Pty Ltd is committed to responsible corporate citizenship and conducts its business worldwide lawfully, ethically, sustainably and with integrity.

Overview of our operations

Trinkor Pty Ltd is a sourcing and supply company.

Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act requires certain companies to disclose their use of tin, tantalum, tungsten and gold ("conflict minerals"), recognising that armed groups responsible for the conflict in the Democratic Republic of Congo and its adjoining countries may be benefiting from the production and sale of these conflict minerals.

Trinkor Pty Ltd does not produce gold, tin, tungsten or tantalum, and as such does not have any reporting requirements under Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

Broader sustainability and human rights approach

Our policies are guided by international human rights principles including those set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the 10 United Nations Global Compact principles, the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, the United Nations Voluntary Principles on Security and Human Rights, and the International Council on Mining and Metals ("ICMM") Sustainable Development Framework.
